

Broadway's Novelties

PLAYERS IN THE NEW MUSIC BOX REspectable, as staged by Hassard Short, has a picture indicates. Grace La Rue and At the upper left is Helen Rich, one of right is the funny little dancer, Olivette, a lower right are the Fairbanks twins, who are

STORM COUNTRY." She is soon of a picture in which she was success-production, which will show the ad-

WHERE MEN ARE MEN. Glenn Hunter as Merton in "Merton of the Movies," scheduled for the Cort Theater this week, is telling about the vast, open spaces nor-nor-east of Los Angeles. The play is a dramatization of Harry Leon Wilson's story.

SCENES FROM "R U R." Kathlene MacDonell and Basil Sydney are pictured in one of the many dramatic moments in this play, which the Theater Guild has produced at the Garrick. In the insert is John Rutherford, the leader of the world-destroying Robots.

Right—MME. CECILE
SOREL. "The Adventurers" is the play in which the star of the Comedie Francaise will begin her engagement at the Thirty-ninth Street Theater to-morrow night.

ETHEL BARRYMORE,
AS EQUITY BALL STAR.
Many stage celebrities will appear at the annual ball of the Actors' Equity Association at the Hotel Astor on Saturday evening, November 18. It will be the great event of the season from the actors' standpoint.

IN "THE LADY IN ERMINE." Wilda Bennett, as she appears in the musical play now running at the Ambassador.
Miss Bennett takes the leading role in this lavishly staged production.

